throughout my life i have sought adventure over the face of the world and its waters as other men have hunted and fought for gold or struggled for fame the love of it whether through the outcropping of a strain of buccaneer blood that had been held in subjection by generations of placid propriety or as a result of some freak of prenatal suggestion was born in me deep planted and long rooted excitement is as essential to my existence as air and food through it my life has been prolonged in activity and my soul perpetuated in youth when i can no longer enjoy its electrification death as it is so spoken of will i hope come quickly to get away from the flat tiresome beaten path and find conditions or create situations to gratify the clamorous demand within me has ever been my compelling passion i have served all told under eighteen flags and to each i gave the best that was in me even though some of them were disappointing in their failure to produce a pleasing amount of excitement in following my natural bent which i was powerless as well as disinclined to interfere with or alter to the full length of my capabilities it perhaps will be considered by some people that i have gone outside of written laws to such a contention my answer is that i have always been true to my own conscience which is the known and yet the unknown quantity we all must reckon with and to my country in the transportation of arms with which to further fights for freedom or fortune i have flown many flags i had no strictly legal right to fly over ships that were not what they pretended to be nor what their papers indicated them to be but never have i taken refuge behind the stars and stripes nor have i ever called on an american minister or consular officer to get me out of the successive scrapes with governments but most often with misgovernments into which my warring wanderings have carried me red blooded love of adventure free from any wanton spirit and with the prospect of financial reward always subordinated has been the driving force in all of my encounters with good men and bad with the latter class much in the majority therefore i have only scorn for sympathy and contempt for criticism nor am i troubled with uncanny visions by night nor haunting recollections by day there is just one point in my philosophy which i wish to make clear before the blue peter is hoisted and that is that most of the so called impossibilities we encounter are simply disguised opportunities because they are regarded as impossible they are not guarded against and are therefore comparatively easy of accomplishment when they really are possible as most of them are acceptance of this theory with which every student of the history of warfare will agree will help to explain my ability to do some of the things which will be told of that the thoughtless would promptly put down as impossible the name by which i am known is one of the contradictions of my life save only for my father who sympathized with my adventurous disposition at the same time that he tried to curb it i was at war with my family almost from the time i could talk i am a republican in politics from the fact that they were active supporters of james buchanan and i became a southern sympathizer simply because they were bitterly opposed to slavery when i left home to become an adventurer around the globe i buried my real name and i do not propose to uncover it here or hereafter i am proud though of the fact that my family is descended from a king of burgundy for since reaching years of discretion though i have been as loyal to the united states as any man since 1865 i never have believed in a republican form of government in the course of my activities i have used many names in many lands but that of boynton which had been in the family for years stuck to me until i finally adopted it prefixing a ÒgeorgeÓ and a Òb Ó which really stands for Òboynton Ó i made it my business to forget as soon as they had served my purpose the different names i took in response to the demand of expediency but i remember that kinnear and henderson were two under which i created some comment on opposite sides of the world
